New Insignia to be Learned by Would-be-Wise Citizens

Denton citizens have experienced much pleasure and in many cases much personal pride in becoming able to distinguish the various ranks of officers in the army by their insignia. Often, as one stands on the street corners, he hears the younger folk dressed in khaki exclaim, "there comes a lieutenant," meaning "there comes a lieutenant," as shown by the bar on the soldier's shoulder and immediately the group of embryo soldiers comes to attention, showing with pride they recognize his rank.

Now there are new insignia to be learned: the insignia of men who have done their bit and soon expect to resume peaceful occupations. Special marks have been given the returning soldiers according to the place and length of service and that one may distinguish between them, the following has been prepared.

War Service Chevron

"V" shaped bar of gold lace, worn on lower part of left sleeve of all uniform coats, except fatigue coats, by officers, field and enlisted men who have served six months in the war zone. This chevron is worn point down. An additional chevron is allowed for each six months service.

Wound Chevron

Also a "V" shaped bar of gold lace, worn point down, on the right sleeve. Not more than one wound chevron can be worn if two or more wounds are sustained at the same time.

Dear Sweet Grace:-

What are you doing now? I wish you would stop reading this long enough to write me a letter or, if I am close enough, telephone me. Do you remember four years ago? Well I do I had just returned from viewing the Whippet tank demonstrated on the Scripture addition. Capt. Alfred Grant spoke on the square and Mrs Donoho rode in the tank Eya and I rode home on the running-board of your Reo.
I came home and no good-present for that evening!

Grace I sure was in love with you then you are the sweetest girl I ever knew. And I doubt that now, after four years, I have found anyone in whom I would love to confide and be a bosom friend to. Remember I never saw you angry once.

Grace I hope you have become what your hopes attained to. I am sure my occupation is school-teaching. Not very romantic! but maybe I'm milking ^{and} Old Bess! if she is not sick ^{remember} and picking roses in my old fashioned garden of Roses - if it is possible with so many cats around, the symbol of the retired maid. Well maybe I am fixing to give a house party or weekend fete. If I am not write and remind me that I am a failure in life or love become untrue to my friends (forbid)

Do you remember our Jewee Club? - Of course not it still lives I am sure if not in reality then in our hearts.

Do you remember what a hard time I had studying for the examinations and how I didn't know then whether it was Minnie or myself who was going to get the Honors? you know now who got them - wasn't it awful - the suspense? your recitation - "Mice at Play" remember when you said it and when and how many times you said "The Blue Hen Chicken" I hope your voice rolls like thunder and tritters like a sweet little bird before many large audiences to-day. even if it does not it has the ability to do so (by one who knows!)

UNITED WAR WORK CAMPAIGN

THERE'S A BIG CAMPAIGN A-COMING Tune—There's a Long, Long Trail a-Winding.

Brother's fighting in the trenches
Over 'cross the pond,
Mother helps by saving sugar,
Father's bought a bond;
Sure we all of us have Thrift Stamps
And help the Red Cross, too,
But till our soldier line has cross the Rhine
There's still more that we can do.

Chorus—
There's a big campaign a-coming
And we're helping in it, too,
For work and work, then work some more
Will put it through.
We must always keep on earning
For our army strong and true,
And we mean to show the Kaiser
What the boys and girls can do.

PACK UP YOUR DOLLARS Tune—Pack Up Your Troubles

Pack up your dollars in a money bag,
And smile, smile, smile.
Send it across and never let it lag—
Giving's all the style.
What's the use of hoarding it?
It never was worth while,
So! send all your earnings to the soldier lads,
And smile, smile, smile.

GOD BLESS OUR NOBLE MEN Tune—America

God bless our noble men,
Bring them safe home again,
God bless our men.
Keep them victorious,
Patient and chivalrous;
They are so dear to us—
God bless our men.

PULL FOR VICTORY

Tune—Keep the Home Fires Burning
To the girls a call for service
Comes from lands across the sea,
"Enlist, ye girls, be ready
In the fight for victory.
Do your part to win the battle,
Give your time, your money, too,
Give yourself in loving service,
'Tis the most that you can do."

Chorus—
Keep the home fires brighter,
Make some burdens lighter,
Do your part to help in your Community.
Sharing others' labor,
Helping each her neighbor,
This the call to every girl—
Pull for Victory!

"KATY"

K-K-K-Katy, beautiful Katy,
You're the only g-g-g-girl that I adore;
When the m-m-m-moon shines over the cow-shed,
I'll be waiting at the k-k-k-kitchen door.

K-K-K-K. P., terrible K. P.,
You're the only j-j-j-job that I abhor,
When the m-m-m-moon shines over the guard house,
I'll be mopping up the k-k-k-kitchen floor.

Swiftly up the Rhine,
Victory, Victory, Victory, Victory,
We're the girls in line."

CROWD OVERFLOWS BAPTIST CHURCH TO HEAR SOLDIERS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—A large crowd of soldiers and their families crowded into the Baptist church Monday night to hear the singing of the "Sons of the South." The soldiers were given a dinner at Lowry Hall at the C. I. A. following their concert there in the afternoon and after the evening program, they were honor guests at a dance given in the Elks' Hall. They spent the night as guests in Denton homes and left Friday morning to continue their tour of the state in the interest of the Liberty loan.

The entertainment of the visiting soldiers was looked after by the Red Cross Canteen committee, including the trip to the C. I. A. where the boys were entertained at supper by the college, the dance and refreshments and the securing of homes for the night.

In beautiful language, he pictured how the boys will be coming home and said that they will then ask, "What did you do to bring us back?"

While in Denton, the Kelly Field soldiers were well entertained. They were given a dinner at Lowry Hall at the C. I. REPORT

Happenings at High School

(Otis Roark, Reporter.)

Friday closed the first term's work at the High School. The first three days of next week will be given for examinations. Thursday to the grading of papers and Friday the report cards will be given out. Notwithstanding the fact that best part of a month was lost on account of the influenza, the students by hard work were able to get the required work done and on a whole the faculty are pleased with the spirit shown.

During the past week, with the weather moderated, the basket-ball teams have been able to work out with good results. The boys' team is scheduled to play a picked team from Ponder this afternoon for practice.

Because of the fact that the "Bronco" the school annual will not be issued this year, members of the Senior class are planning to publish a souvenir book to take the place, as far as possible, of the annual. It will be a much smaller edition, containing snapshots, photos, and other items of interest to the class members.

TO D. H. S. STUDENTS.

My heart overflows with gratitude to the members of my class who so kindly remembered me with the fruit shower Friday morning, and I take this means of conveying to each one of them my whole-hearted thanks for the honor I shall always remember the occasion with gladness. I wish you a merry Christmas. A. LOGAN.

Glee Club Concert Monday at High School Was Success

The concert given Monday evening in the High School auditorium by the Girls' Glee club of the school under the direction of E. H. Farrington proved an entire success and many consider it the best program of any kind presented at the school in some time. It was well arranged, timely and well carried out, and the applause from the audience frequently voiced the enjoyment of the affair.

The first part of the program was of a varied nature and gave opportunity for members of the club who have other than vocal talent to show their talent. The Glee club members sang three numbers, giving encores after each. Miss Carrie Lee White gave Grieg's "Wedding Day" as a piano solo and responded to the encore, and Miss Kathryn Taylor gave two pleasing readings, the applause for which denoted its popularity. The folk dance, "Pompeian Flower Girl," given by Misses Marion Rowland, Fern Massey, Addie Bob Bowles and Kathryn Taylor. The High School orchestra gave three lively selections at the conclusion of the first part of the program.

The last part of the program was in the form of a playlet, "A Modern Uncle Ned," with Wade Ferguson acting the part of Uncle Ned, a patriotic negro who was doing his bit to win the war. He led the singing of a number of old Southern melodies which were especially adapted to the ensemble singing, and which perhaps the most enjoyed numbers of the evening. A feature of the playlet was the quadrillion dance given by the young ladies. The program was brought to a fitting close with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner," during which a large American flag was unfurled and the letters "U. S. A." were flashed from the stage.

CROWD OVERFLOWS BAPTIST CHURCH TO HEAR SOLDIERS

A crowd that filled every available inch inside the new First Baptist church and that overflowed to the outside, heard the Kelly Field Glee Club sing Thursday night and from the way in which they cheered each number on the varied program, it could be plainly seen that they were literally swept by storm. Every number, from the aria from "Rigoletto" to the jazz-strains of the concluding "Long Boy," was met with applause that was deafening and had director David Griffin allowed it, each of the talented minstrels could have responded to a dozen encores.

The program opened with an impressive arrangement of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," with other ensemble numbers including the Marchaise, sung in French, Nevin's "Mighty Lak A Rose," "Pack up Your Troubles," and a number of soldier songs including "Long Boy," "Good Morning M. Zip," "K-K-K-Katy" and the funny "Look at His Ears," the latter a special Kelly Field song.

Several solos were sung and two quartet numbers were given. A novelty which caught the fancy of the audience was Corporal Tolmann's "nasal guitar" which produced a sound equally as pleasing as any Hawaiian's steel-guitar arrangement. His singing of a coon song with vaudeville accompaniment also pleased the audience. Vying with him in the comedy type, was Corporal Geo. A. Rudy whose comical interpretation of "The Gay Drunk Major" was hilarious. He responded to the encore with "Nothin' But Love" and the applause was so prolonged he had to appear again.

Director Griffin enlisted the audience in the singing twice, once in singing "Buy Bonds," and again in the closing number, "The Star Spangled Banner."

Preceding the concert, A. C. Owsley introduced Emory Smith, a Denton boy who has returned from fighting in France where he was wounded in the battle of Cantigny, and the young soldier received an ovation from the audience. Despite the applause, however, he "begged off" from speaking.

The address of the evening was delivered by Judge John Speer of the Senior Class Entertained—Miss Willie Brashears was hostess to the Senior Class of Denton High School Tuesday evening at her home on North Locust Street. The early part of the evening was spent in playing games and telling jokes and later readings by Misses Joardis Park, Grace Minter and Inez Pierce were enjoyed. Refreshments were served at a late hour to the following: Misses Audra Herron, Helen Lee White, Esta Graham, Edytine Kerley, Frances Robinson, Hernia Burgoon, Christine Fouts, Lucile Jones, Minnie Ubben, Ruby Alams, Mavis Pirtle, Inez Pierce, Joardis Park, Ruth Ubben, Ona Raney, Mary Ruth Willis, Selena Turner, Stella Bennett, Grace Minter, Helen Taylor, Ethel King, Exa Minter, Grace Bates, Margaret Collins, Marion Rowland, Fern Turner, Anna Groening, Louise Alexander, Imogene McNeill, Ione Bailey, Vera Manire, and Willie Brashears; Duron Stubblefield, Dabney Lipscomb, Lawton Gambill, Otis Roark, Hartman Looney, Sydney Smith, Marshall Webster, Lionell Angell, Aubrey Rose, A. R. White, Howard Richards and Sifton Richey.

DHS BACCALAUREATE SERVICE SUNDAY IS VERY PRETTY AFFAIR

One of the prettiest baccalaureate services held in recent years was that held at the High School Sunday morning for the members of the graduating class. The young people themselves presented a pretty sight, the girls in their neat white frocks and the boys in their dark serge suits, while the auditorium was attractively decorated and furnished an appropriate setting for the simple, yet very effective program that was given. Despite the inclement weather, a large crowd attended the service.

The sermon was delivered by M. H. Moore, superintendent of the Port Worth Public Schools, while musical numbers were other features. The quartette number, "Come With Thy Love," sung by Misses Winifred, and "Abide," sung by Misses Winifred and Abide. No one is lifted to Heaven merely for his goodness. Jesus Christ substituted himself for us. What is keeping us from advancing into the kingdom of God is conservatism. Your future will depend not upon your attitude toward the past, but upon your attitude toward the future.

Graduation Program
The baccalaureate sermon opened Commencement week which will be observed at the school this week and next. Tuesday evening the annual Senior class play will be presented, Thursday evening the members of the class will be entertained at the home of Mrs. E. B. Lipscomb on West Oak Street and Friday evening the graduation program proper will be given at the First Baptist church.

Examinations began at the High School Monday morning and will continue thru Thursday. Friday morning report cards will be given out and the school will close with the commencement address Friday evening. The forward schools will have their commencement program at the same time as the High School in the auditorium of the R. E. Lee School.

ANNUAL HIGH SCHOOL SENIOR CLASS PLAY ON TUESDAY EVENING

The annual Senior class play at Denton High School is to be presented Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock in the school auditorium and present indications are that it will be one of the most successful ever presented at the school. The play is "If I Only Had A Million," one very appropriately selected with the era of speculation in Texas in full swing and it is said to be one of highly entertaining value.

The play, which is in three acts, tells the comical story of a man, John Smith, who did when he became the expected heir to a fortune. Much trouble is caused by an anarchist whom Smith promised to help should he acquire wealth but all ends well. Lawton Gambill takes the leading role as John Smith and is supported by Miss Carrie Lee White as his would-be butterfly wife whose sole desire is set.

Miss Norma Smith, who has successfully directed class plays at the school in previous years, is in charge of the play and rehearsals have been in progress for some time.

The many guests were met at the door by Miss Helen Francis and were shown into the reception room. Among those in the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. A. Logan, Captain Alfred A. Grant, Lloyd Ledbetter, Misses Edna H. McCormick and Lillian Walker of the High School faculty, Mrs. R. M. Kelso of Port Worth, Miss Leonora Hann and C. M. Mizell. After the arrival of the guests, a short program of toasts was given, including those by Captain Grant and Lloyd Ledbetter, two former pupils of Mr. Logan, who paid him high tribute, and that by Miss Carrie Lee White, president of the senior class, who expressed the appreciation of the class for Mr. Logan's efforts. The remainder of the evening was spent informally and fruit punch was served.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS GRADUATION PROGRAM FOR HIGH GRADUATES

A large crowd commensurate with the size of the class—the largest in the history of the school—attended the commencement program of Denton High School in the auditorium of the First Baptist church Friday evening. The auditorium was filled to its capacity with many standing when the program was begun, and altho the threatening weather forced many to leave before its conclusion, a large crowd remained to see the awarding of diplomas to the sixty-three graduates and of the honors of the class to four students. Boys' honors were awarded to Aubrey Rose with second honors going to Leonard Maxey. Miss Minnie Ubben won first honors for the girls and Miss Beulah Brim second honors.

The graduation program was very prettily arranged and included numbers of exceptional merit. The feature number given members of the class was the singing of Miss Ruth Ubben, a young singer whose voice is of exceptional promise and well trained. She sang "The Rainbow of Love" as her regular number and responded to the two encores with "A Little Birch Canoe" and "Annie Laurie." The piano duet by Misses Margaret Collins and Carrie Lee White was well received and the two young artists, both of whom have shown unusual ability while at High School, responded to an encore. A third musical number was given by the Girls' Glee Club of the High School which sang very beautifully Mendelssohn's "Spring Song" and "The Rosary."

Two readings were given, one by Miss Joardis Park and the other by Miss Grace Minter. They were both well received. Lawton L. Gambill gave an interesting address on "The Progress of Education" in its relation to the world war and contrasted the German and American methods of education. Duron J. Stubblefield expressed the appreciation of the class for the help of the school board, superintendent and members of the faculty which made graduation possible.

Dr. Waits Talks.
Dr. E. M. Waits, president of Texas Christian University, Ft. Worth, delivered the commencement address, giving logical and splendid advice to those just commencing a fuller life and telling them the essentials that go to make up a successful career. He advised the graduates to determine what course they intended to follow, what purpose they would have in life and then to bend all efforts toward a realization of that purpose. He said they should feel a call to their particular vocations, whether they be the ministry, law, teaching or anything else. They should be filling when the call comes, to say "I can, sir," and then answer the call, he said. Edison, Columbus, Goethals, Pershing and Laig answered the call in this way, he declared. He urged the young people to be ambitious, to endeavor to get ahead of "the average man."

In beginning life, the graduates should have aspiration, should have dreams, he said. The dreamers of the world have been its benefactors," he said. "All of our poets, philosophers, musicians, inventors and artists—all of them have been dreamers. All reform has been but a dream of righteousness come true." In addition to aspiration, the graduate should have preparation and the speaker showed that 85 per cent of the officers commissioned in the American army during the war were college men. He urged the graduates to seek higher education in the colleges and universities of the state so that they will be better prepared to enter their life's work. "Life means something and never before in the history of civilization did it mean more than now," he said, as Europe has been devastated and must be rebuilt. The trained mind is much in demand and will be needed as much in the reconstruction era as in the period of warfare, he said. With much of the leadership of Europe dead because of war ravages, it devolves upon America to furnish leaders for the new era, he declared.

Following the address and the concluding musical program, diplomas were awarded the following:

Misses Alice Lucile Jones, Marion Rowland, Ruth V. Ubben, Alice Fay Walde, Willie Pearl Brashears, Margaret M. Collins, Ione Bailey, Hernia T. Burgoon, Helen Francis, Frankie A. Piper, Sophia M. Miss Helen Norfleet of the Music Department of the College of Industrial Arts had the pleasure of hearing the New York debut about a year ago of Max Tosen, young violinist, who plays at the Metropolitan today evening. His reception in New York was very great, according to Miss Norfleet. Of the concert she said:

"At the end it was not Jews alone who filled the entire house rose and were crowded forward toward the stage, amidst a clapping, frantic mob of people. We did not mind, and soon found ourselves with noses almost over the orchestra. The cheering and howling swayed and bowed and lauded aloud as his friends leaped to the stage to embrace him. The applause never ceased until the orchestra struck off. The entire folk still were heaving in the fire of enthusiasm."

Captain Fernand Pollock and his squad of French army heroes, arrived in London on two special cars at 8.30 Tuesday morning for their concert at the auditorium of the College of Industrial Arts at 8 o'clock tonight. This squad has appeared in most of the larger cities of the United States and has been received most enthusiastically everywhere. In the United States they have given service in the great world wars and many of them wear wound stripes and have been decorated for valor on the battlefield. They are still members of the French army and are now on furlough for the tour of the United States.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 10.—A tandem airplane that will carry at least twenty passengers is under construction by a St. Louis concern.

Besides the passengers the plane will carry 10,000 pounds of freight, officials of the company declare. The machine will be used for St. Louis-Chicago passenger and freight service and if the plan proves remunerative other planes will be constructed and service to other points established.

The plane has a wing spread of 7 feet from tip to tip. The body is 40 feet long and six feet in diameter. The plane has four 450-horse power motors, four planes, two in front and two in the rear and two propellers.

The propellers are operated by different set of motors and in event one breaks down the other can keep the plane stabilized until a safe landing is made, officials explained.

The first trip to Chicago is to be made July 1.

For Waco High Girls—The Deutsches basketball girls entertained in honor of the Waco High girls Friday night with a 9 o'clock dinner at the home of Miss Fern Massey, 51 Texas Street. A four course dinner was served, consisting of the following: cream of celery soup, crutons, potatoe cutlets, creamed peas, stuffed celery, biscuits, pear and cherry salad, cherry cake and cake. The dining room was beautifully decorated in the High School colors of maroon and white while the courses were served in silver. The table was decorated with a maroon and white color scheme. The centerpieces were small baskets of red and white filled with salted peanuts, further carrying out the color scheme. FRENCH ARMY BAND
HERE FOR CONCERT
AT C. I. A. TONIGHT

Captain Fernand Pollain and his band of French army heroes, arrived in Denton on two special cars at 8.30 Tuesday morning for their concert in the auditorium of the College of Industrial Arts at 8 o'clock tonight. This band has appeared in most of the larger cities of the United States and has been received most enthusiastically everywhere. All of the members have seen active service in the great world war and many of them wear wound stripes and have been decorated for valor on the battlefield. They are still members of the French army and are now on furlough for the tour of the United States.

The fact that the men are heroes of many of the terrible battles in which the French army took part, has added greatly to the enthusiasm of their reception everywhere, but competent critics say all members of the band are musicians of exceptional ability and many of them are soloists of high reputation in France. They are touring this country to raise funds for a home for wounded soldiers in France and the College of Industrial Arts does not receive any profits whatever from the concert, it was stated. All the money received, with the exception of the actual expenses, goes to this fund.

The "French Blue Devils," as the French soldiers were termed by the Germans, attracted much attention about town Tuesday in their bluish-gray uniforms.

All the tickets for the performance were sold Monday, but C. A. Tripp, registrar at the college, said Tuesday that it had been decided to admit people to the hall to stand for the concert if any desired. Many calls for tickets were received after the last one had been sold, so it was decided to let people into the hall at reduced prices.

It was said that the music can be heard about as well in the hall as in the auditorium, and that every dollar received for such admission will add just that much to the fund for building the home for French soldiers.

"FACULTY STUNTS" BY CIA FACULTY MEMBERS PROMISES A BIG HIT

"Faculty Stunts", which made such a big hit with C. I. A. townspeople last year, will be presented in the College auditorium Monday evening, March 10th, by the Department of Extension of the C. I. A.

of the C. I. A. The announcement from the college states that the Stunts this year are to comprise eight big numbers, each with its own director. The bill includes singing, theatricals, dancing and special acts for all of which special costumes have been designed. Three big numbers are the "Bellegalles Chorus", with "Mlle. Aimee" soloist; "Bubbles Troubles", a one-act farce comedy with a cast of seven people, not including the dog, and the celebrated "Dwarf Ballet Quartette", directed by Mme. Olorna. Of the Dwarf Quartette, the Department of Extension states that Vorst, the tallest, is twenty-seven inches high, while Bneil, the smallest, is twenty-four and a half inches. Their miniature size is said not to interfere in the least with their wonderful exhibition of artistic dancing.

In "Bubbles Troubles," an exco-ally clever farce comedy, there tires to any partially deand "Bettykins," the little star, does away with one of them. What happens to the other two is developed in a thirty-five minute act—which is all action.

The Bellefilles Chorus is led by the noted soloist, Mlle. Almee, who has six charming assistants. The costumes in this number are said to be extremely effective.

The "Daown South Quartette" which made a big hit with the audience last year, is to play a return engagement. New songs and costumes are promised by the director.

The "Musical Outfit" whose "Juvenile Orchestra" was talked of for weeks after last year's performance, is to present a one-act playlet this year. "Derinka" is introduced as a

"Mlle. Perinska" is introduced as a quick-change artist of real genius, and her stunt is said to be very clever. Morold and Arngan, advertised as a "Canadian Duo of Artistic Dancers" are to do a pretty skating dance, it is announced.

The Stunts this year are being managed in a very business-like way. All special costumes for the numbers were designed by Miss Virginia M. Alexander of the Fine Arts department. Miss Estelle G. Hefley, associate Dean of the college, is stage manager. Miss E. M. Knowlton is Manager of the Food and Cokery faculty is Manager of the Vendors, and is to have fourteen assistants in specially designed costumes. C. A. Tripp, registrar of the College, is Property Man and Advertising manager.

The Fourteen Principles.

No secret treaties.

Freedom of the seas, except to suppress predatory nations that fail to respect international convenants.

The removal of all trade barriers.

Reduction of armaments.

Adjustment of colonial claims with reference to the wishes of the governed population.

The evacuation of Russian territory and abandonment of economic control therein.

Independence of Belgium with indemnification.

Restoration of Alsace-Lorraine.

Readjustment of Italy's frontiers.

Autonomous government for the different nationalities of Austria-Hungary.

Evacuation of Romania, Serbia and Montenegro.

Relinquishment of Turkish control of non-Turkish populations.

An independent Polish state.

A League of Nations to guarantee political independence and territorial integrity to great and small states alike.

On February 11, replying to speeches by Von Hertling, then German Chancellor, and Count Czernin, Austrian Foreign Minister, President Wilson declared, in addition, that as a test to determine if it would be of avail to go on exchanging peace views, the Central Powers must apply these four principles to any peace proposal:

Each part of the final settlement must be based upon essential justice to bring permanent peace.

Peoples and provinces are not to be bartered about like catties to establish a balance of power.

Territorial settlements must be for the benefit of the people concerned and not mere adjustments of rival states' claims.

Well-defined national aspirations must be accorded all possible satisfaction.

"A general peace upon such foundations can be discussed," the President said. "Until such a peace can be secured we have no choice but to go on." In his Feb. 11 speech he declared, "For such arrangements and covenants we are willing to fight and continue to fight until they are achieved; but only if we wish the right to prevail. Following will be a just and stable peace." Retained with Liberty Rally Sunday morning, given by the boys of Denton.

Happenings at High School

(Otis Roark, Reporter)

The Denton High boys' basket-ball team will play Hardin Training School of Dallas on the local court Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The baseball diamond has been put in shape and work-outs will begin in about two weeks, weather permitting.

Rehearsals are being held for the two original plays written by high school students and to be presented Friday evening, February 21. The plays are "For One (K) Night Only," written by Grace Bates and others, and "Mr. Wm. A. Green from Arizona," written by Lionell Angell and Sydney Smith.

Arrangements are being made for the Valentine bazaar to be held in the suite occupied by the Domestic Education Department Friday at noon. Numerous original ideas are being worked out and the affair is expected to be a big success. Proceeds will go towards paying off a debt on last year's Broncho.

DENTON HIGH CLAIMS STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

The Denton High girls' basket-ball team claims the State championship by reason of its defeating the strongest team of North Texas and of Waco, champions of Central and South Texas. Waco defeated the locals at Waco, Denton defeated Waco here and Waco did not accept the challenge for a third game to decide the championship, thereby forfeiting the title to the Denton girls. The team has made an excellent record this year and is considered perhaps the best Denton High has turned out in recent years.

Candy Pull—The Senior Class of the High School began their commencement festivities with a candy pull at the school Friday evening. A large number of young people were present and the evening was pleasantly spent. The Domestic Education suite, where the candy was made under direction of Prof. O. W. Stewart, were prettily decorated in the class colors of gold and purple while the candy itself furnished a riot of color. The bowls of roses made the suite more attractive. An informal program of "stunts" was given in the school auditorium and in a contest, Miss Frankie Piner and A. R. White won the prize.

Other D. H. S. News.
"The Seniors," year book of the Senior Class, is now ready for the press, according to announcement Wednesday. The last of the cuts have been received from the engravers and the book will probably go to the printer today.

Members of the Senior Class have received their invitations from the engravers and are sending them out to their friends.

IN MEMORIAM.

A cloud of gloom was cast over the entire community early Sunday morning when the spirit of little Forest, son of Dr. G. Z. Minter and wife, took its flight into eternity. How hard it is to realize that he is gone; so sudden was his departure, he having attended school Thursday in apparently perfect health. His mother had just sent him new suit of clothes on the previous Sunday morning with a check in Georgia when he started to school. He was a very bright boy, almost like the old Methodist brother who died recently. His death was a great loss to the community and his friends are sure that he will be able to do much good in the future. We all have our ups and downs, and quite frequently get out of balance and say and do things not to our credit. We must learn to control our emotions and keep our heads on straight. All thy works shall praise thy name in earth, and sky and sea.
Holy, Holy, Holy, all the saints adore thee, Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
Cherubim and seraphim falling down before thee,
Thou who wast, and art, and ever shalt be!

SYNOPSIS

While preparing for his spring garden, Uncle Ned is surprised by Sarah Thornhill and her House Party of girls who have come to bring him a few "surprises" on his birthday. They persuade the old darkey to tell of his former days, the memories of which, cause him to take on new life as he relates them. However, he does not forget the present war and Uncle Sam's needs.

SYNOPSIS

While preparing for his spring garden, Uncle Ned is surprised by Sarah Thornhill and her House Party of girls who have come to bring him a few "surprises" on his birthday. They persuade the old darkey to tell of his former days, the memories of which cause him to take on new life as he relates them. However, he does not forget the present war and Uncle Sam's needs.

ONWARD, CHRISTIAN SOLDIERS

Onward, Christian Soldiers!
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before.
Christ the royal Master,
Leads against the foe;
Forward into battle,
See, his banner go!

CHORUS

Onward, Christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before.

Like a mighty army
Moves the Church of God;
Brothers, we are treading
Where the saints have trod;
We are not divided,
All one body we,
One in hope and doctrine
One in charity.

CHORUS

Crowns and thorns may perish,
Kingdoms rise and wane,
But the Church of Jesus,
constant will remain;
Gates of hell can never
'Gainst the Church prevail;
We have Christ's own promise
And that cannot fail.

CHORUS

Onward, then, ye faithful!
Join our happy throng,
Blend with ours your voices,
In the triumph song;
Glory, praise and honor
Unto Christ the King,
This thro' countless ages
Men and angels sing.

Anna Case, grand opera prima donna and star of the concert stage will be seen in her screen debut, "The Hidden Truth," at the Princess Theatre, today.

Helen Merrill, a beautiful dancing girl in a Western town, befriends Myrtle Cadby, another dancing girl, whose husband is a bully and a drunkard. Myrtle kills her husband in self-defense, but before she dies she gives Helen a letter to a man in New York under an assumed name and before long falls in love with the man who has befriended her. He learns that she is traveling under an assumed name, but she fights to get back the love which she knows rightfully belongs to her. Happiness for all concerned is the result.

Dear Friend:

Your good letter reached me at Gray some weeks ago. Excuse me, dear Earl, to have not immediately answered to you. I was very busy during the epidemic of influenza and I too, was myself a little sick. I was very glad and my family too, to hear you are quite well. Dear friend, every day I think of you and I recommend you to God asking to him to protect and save you and bring you back from the war to your dear family; my mother and my brother talk to me of you in every one of their letters and you know how much affectionately we remember of you.

I have got home some days ago and I must go back the next Wednesday. How much should I have been glad to see you here again like the last summer but now you are very far!! We are talking very often of you dear friend, and we are wanting very cordially to have you again with us.

Perhaps will you come again to Chameroy to rest while, all the people would be very glad to see again their dear, kind, good American soldiers; they like them very much.

They have built here some great barracks for soldiers, but if you come again, a good warm bed is prepared for you. If you might get a permission my family would you come to enjoy this permission at our home at Chameroy. We all should be very glad. If it is impossible now, we are hoping you will come to see us after the war before you go back to America. We hope it will be soon! Till this time, my mother is afraid you become sick or wounded. Send please, to her time to time one card to let know her you are well, Dear Friend we wish you good luck. Write me soon and I will answer immediately. My good mother send to you her best wishes and she kisses you as her son.

From my brother Henry best regards. I remain forever dear Earl your affectionate friend,

H. RICHARD

P. S. I have tried to write you American but perhaps you cannot understand my bad writing. Tell me it kindly please in your next letter. From my family and me the best regards to my family Flake, Milbins, Haynie and Sergeants Flake, Milbins, Haynie and Williams—when you have the occasion to see them.

MY LOVELY CELIA GEORGE MONRO
My lovely Celia, heav'nly fair,
As lilies sweet, as soft as air;
No more then torment me, but be kind,
And with thy love ease my troubled mind.

O, let me gaze on your bright eyes,
Where melting beams so oft arise;
My heart is enchanted with thy charms,
O, take me, dying, to your arms.
And my heart at peace.

GIUNSE ALFIN IL MOMENTO

MOZART

Giunse alfin il momento che godrò
senza affano
In braccio all'idol mio.
Timide cure! Uscite dal mio petto!
A tur bar non venite il mio diletto.
O come par che all'amooso foco!
L'amenità del loco,
La terra, e il ciel risponda!
Come la notte i furti miei seconda!

PSYCHE

E. PALADILHE

Je suis jaloux, Psyché, de toute la nature!
Les rayons du soleil vous baisent
trop souvent,
Vos cheveux souffrent trop les caresses du vent.
Quand il les flatte, j'er murmure!
L'air même que vous respirez,
Avec trop de plaisir passe sur votre
bouche.
Votre habit de trop près vous touche!
Votre habit de trop près vous touche!
Ee sitôt que vous soupirez,
Je ne sais quoi qui m'effarouche
Craint, parmi vos soupirs, des soupirs égarés!

J'AI PLEURÉ EN RÊVE

GEORGES HÛE

J'ai pleuré en rêve: J'ai rêvé que tu
étais morte ;
Je m'éveillai et les larmes coulèrent
de mes joues.
J'ai pleuré en rêve: J'ai rêvé que tu
me quittais;
Je m'éveillai et je pleurai amèrement
longtemps après.
J'ai pleuré en rêve: J'ai rêvé que tu
m'aimais encore;
Je m'éveillai, je m'éveillai et le torrent de mes larmes coule toujours, tou-jours!

BABY IS SLEEPING

BAINBRIDGE CRIST

My baby is sleeping,
My babe's asleep,
My flow'r is resting,
I'll give you a peep;
How cunning he looks
As he rests upon my arm!
My flow'r's most charming
Of all them that charm.

THE OLD WOMAN

BAINBRIDGE CRIST

There was an old woman, as I have heard tell,
She went to sell her pie,
But her pie would not sell.
She hurried back home,
But her door step was high,
And she stumbled and fell
And a dog ate her pie.

YES, AT LENGTH 'TIS THE MO- MENT

MOZART

Yes, at length 'tis the moment,
I again shall behold him, and to my heart shall fold him.
Hence, sad misgivings!
No more shall you oppress me.
For he comes with returning love to bless me.
Oh, how this spot seems made for such a meeting!
The very air around seems vocal with some fond greeting, Earth smiles approving, Heav'n too that smile repeating.

PSYCHE

English version by

HENRY G. CHAPMAN

Ah, Psyche, vex'd am I, all nature is so zealous!
Now the kiss of the sun too often finds your cheek,
In your hair now the winds play hide and seek.
Of such devotion I am jealous!
The air you breathe makes far too
free,
Straying over your lips more warmly than jocosity;
And your gown clasps your breast
too closely!
And your gown clasps your breast
too closely!
And I feel, when you heave a sigh,
Something within that cries mo-
roosely:
Ah, she sighs, but she sighs not for me, not for me!

I WEPT, BELOVED, AS I

DREAMED, English version

by C. ENGEL

I wept, beloved, as I dream'd thou
hadst gone to heav'nly spheres;
And when I woke there burst from mine eyes a burning flood of tears.
I wept, beloved, as I dream'd thou
hadst forsaken me;
And when I woke I sobb'd and cried all the gray morn, my love, for thee
I wept, beloved, as I dream'd thy heart was still aglow;
And when I woke, ah, when I woke,
blind were mine eyes with tears that ever, ever flow and flow.

YESTERDAY AND TODAY

SPROSS

Yesterday! Ah yesterday the skies were grayed.
Weary the lonely way
Where lengthening shadows creeping laid
Their fear upon the day.
Yesterday, yesterday, ah yesterday,
love delayed.

Today! Today all flushed with gold the sky
And through the forest shade
I follow to the brooklet's cry.
That fills with melody the glade, Today, today is Heav'n for thou, for thou art nigh.

ARIETTE

PAUL VIDAL

Si j'étais rayon, j'irais, jeune fille,
Si j'étais rayon splendide et joyeux, Verser tout l'éclat de mon feu qui brille,
Dans tes jolis yeux.
Si j'étais zéphir, j'irais dans les
tresses,
Dans les tresses d'or de tes cheveux
doux,
Je leur donnerais de folles caresses,
Malgré les jaloux!
Si j'étais parfum, malgré toi, farouche,
Si j'étais parfum, j'irais déposer
Au plus gentil coin de ta chère
bouche
L'enivrant baiser!
Si j'étais murmure, au ciel ou sur
terre,
J'irais sans répit, trêve ni repos,
Te dire à l'oreille, avec grand mystère,
De tendres propos
Si j'étais Amour, j'irais dans ton âme,
Si j'étais Amour, j'irais dans ton
cœur,
Épeler, le soir, les lettres de flamme
De mon nom vainqueur!
Si j'étais Amour, j'irais dans ton âme,
Si j'étais Amour, j'irais dans ton
cœur,
Épeler, le soir, les lettres de flamme
De mon nom vainqueur!

CHANSON NORVEGIENNE

FOURRAIN

Jesuis prise d'une tristesse
Qui pèse, pèse lourdement:
Il me trahit, il me délaisse,
Celui qui j'aime tendrement.
C'est fête au village et je danse,
Pour cacher ma douleur, hé las!
Mais il me semble, à chaque pas,
Entendre crier ma souffrance!
Audessus des fiords Norvège,
Plus haut que les mâts des vaisseaux,
Plus haut que les sentiers de neige
Où courent, glissent les traîneaux,
Ils montent, mes pleurs, mes alarmes,
Et la danse n'arrête pas,
Mais il me semble, à chaque pas,
Tournoyer dans un flot de larmes!

HOW MUCH I LOVE YOU

LA FORGE

How much I love you, my dear, you would know?
So count all the twinkling stars as they glow,
Count in the meadow the grasses all,
The dewdrops that shine on the grasses tall,
The grains of sand on the ocean's
strand,
The flow'rs of May in all the land!
Add all together, and now you shall hear,
A thousand times, thousand times more I love you, dear!

ARIETTE, English version by

HENRY G. CHAPMAN

Were I sunshine, I should come, pretty maiden,
Were I sunshine flashing, bright from the skies,
I should pour the light of my fire,
sweet maiden,
In thy pretty eyes.
Were I Zephyrus, I'd blow thro' thy
tresses,
Thro' the tresses soft of thy golden hair,
I should play in them with wanton
caresses,
Nor for rivals care!

Were I perfume sweet, and thy smile
malicious,
Were I perfume sweet, yet I should impress
On thy dimpled cheek, or thy lips
delicious,
A delicious kiss!
Could I be a voice humble or imperious,
Ever should I come, ceaseless, un-deter'd, Whispering in thine ear many a mysterious
And amorous word.

And if I were Love, I'd dwell in thy
spirit,
And if I were Love, thy heart I
should claim,
I would breathe thy name, at eve
thou shouldst hear it,
My all-conqu'ring name!
And if I were Love, I'd dwell in thy
spirit,
And if I were Love, thy heart I
should claim;
I would breathe thy name, at eve
thou shouldst hear it,
My all-conqu'ring name!

TRANQUILLITY

ARTHUR FOOTE

Sea gulls about me, and before me lessening
A city set on hills,
Its shining streets new washed with rain,
And golden at its back
The sweet and gracious sun that nears his rest.

Sea gulls about me, and below the sea
Stretching away like a great tourmaline
To banks of misty pearl on either hand
That hide the ocean's gateway to the shore.

Sea gulls about me, and the sky
above, Serene and changeless; all the wrack of storm
Passed into silent blue tranquillity.
Sea gulls about me

LADY BUG

BAINBRIDGE CRIST

Lady Bug, Lady-Bug,
Fly away, do,
Fly to the mountain,
And feed upon dew,
Feed upon dew
And sleep on a rug,
And then run away, run away, run away like a good little bug.
